DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group 1, claim(s) 24-30, drawn to methods for treating schizophrenia comprising administration of a polynucleotide fragment.

Group 2, claim(s) 31-37, drawn to methods for treating schizophrenia comprising administration of a polypeptide fragment.

Group 3, claim(s) 38-41, drawn to methods of diagnosing schizophrenia comprising detecting a gene mutation.

Group 4, claim(s) 42, drawn to methods for treating schizophrenia comprising administration of an antibody.

Group 5, claim(s) 43 and 44, drawn to animal models of psychiatric disorders.

Group 6, claim(s) 45, drawn to method for identifying ligands for gene products.

Further Lack of Unity Restriction Requirement

If Applicants elect any of Groups 1-6, Applicants must further select a single specific gene or a specific combination of at least one gene from the group consisting of SEMCAP3, N33, GRIK4, NPAS2, PDE4B, and CDH8. Claims of the elected invention will be examined only in so far as they require the selected combination of genes. Claims not requiring the selected combination of genes will be withdrawn from examination.

2. The inventions listed as Groups 1-6 do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons:

Art Unit: 1634

A common technical feature among Groups 1-6 is the PDE4B gene and its encoded polypeptide. However, such a technical feature was known in the prior art and is anticipated by GenBank GI:4505662 (1999).

Regarding the Further Lack of Unity requirement, the different genes and their encoded polypeptides, and the different combinations thereof, lack a common technical feature because they are composed of different sequences of nucleic acid and amino acids, and thus are structurally distinct. Additionally, the methods have distinct steps that are not coextensive with one another.

3. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

4. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Stephen Kapushoc whose telephone number is 571-272-3312. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday through Friday, from 8am until 5pm.
